Together

Creating
Intergenerational
Communities

- Creating Intergenerational Communities is a UK-wide pilot programme funded by the National Lottery Community Fund until June 2025.
- It aims to establish 30 intergenerational flagship projects during its lifetime - 10 in NI
- Focus on quality, improving practice, sustainability and building IG capacity
- Reduce loneliness, social isolation, improve well-being and build relationships between generations
- Development of quality standards/indicators which will be piloted

Progress so far!

- Intergenerational training delivered to 28 Early Years Practitioners and 12 Older Peoples settings since July 2023.
- Each setting involved is now equipped with the knowledge of how to plan, deliver and evaluate intergenerational activities.
- 8 settings are now enrolled as pilot settings as part of the wider UK NLCF project.
- Contribution from Early Years pilot lead – Carmen Leonard – Millcroft Nursing Home – Fermanagh

Project example – Pilot lead Carmen Leonard – Millcroft Nursing Home

- Value of the training.
- Benefits to the residents.
- Trialling the indicators.
- Plans for the future.

Halifax project

Aims & objectives:

This project is aimed at building on the resource of the youngest and oldest in our society to make a positive impact both now and for the future of our society.

Halifax project

- 126 direct beneficiaries took part. They told us:
- 88% of respondents said they would like to take part in another project
- 71% said they felt better about themselves
- 84% that they had learned new things
- 74% of younger participants indicated that they felt more confident
- 90% of older people felt better about themselves
- 100% felt more active
- 70% were surprised at what they could do

Across Borders and Generations - update

- The project has supported younger and older people from Mayobridge and Balbriggan to develop intergenerational activities in their communities to build relationships, break down age barriers and improve community cohesion.
- The groups got together in Newry to share the progress and learning from their activities so far.
- AvilaMedia were there to take some video interviews and also some content for our projects video.
- The day rounded off with a very successful jewellery workshop which went down a treat!

Comments from feedback

- “I have learned that older people are living their first life”. (Leader: I thought it was so insightful that they recognise that older people continue to grow, develop and learn throughout their life)
- Days out supported building relationships
- Opportunity of project enabled us to see similarities and focused our initiative – organic
- Comfortable setting nice to be welcomed
- Ripple effect. I feel more willing to engage with other young people – “I will take a risk to reach out and engage with young people now”
